

Participation in the Botswana 51st Independence Day Parade

Embassy of Japan in Botswana

25th September 2015

On the 23rd September 2017 in Gaborone, the Embassy of Japan participated Botswana's 51st Independence Day parade. Ambassador Onishi and our embassy team with Japanese traditional carnival costumes (so called "Happi") marched approximately 5 km towards Main Mall with flags of Japan and Botswana. During the celebration ceremony following the parade, Ambassador Onishi was introduced as a main guest.
