

The Japanese Art Exhibition

'Variation and Autonomy: the Prints of Contemporary Japanese Painters'

The Botswana National Museum

From 17 August, the Japanese Art Exhibition 'Variation and Autonomy: the Prints of Contemporary Japanese Painters' will be held at the Botswana National Museum. The event is co-hosted by the Embassy of Japan and the Ministry of Youth Empowerment, Sport and Culture Development. This is part of a series of Embassy events to commemorate the 55th Anniversary of Japan-Botswana Diplomatic Relations.

This exhibition will showcase 42 prints produced by 10 prominent Japanese contemporary painters, namely Yayoi Kusama, Hitoshi Nakazato, Kosai Hori, Masanari Murai, Naoyoshi Hikosaka, Natsuyuki Nakanishi, Toeko Tatsuno, Tomoharu Murakami, Toshinobu Onosato, and Yasukazu Tabuchi. They explored a wide range of possibilities through prints and expanded the range of expression in contemporary art using the print medium.
